1. [REDACTED] DD/P, called stating that it had been suggested to DD/P that certain key individuals in the DD/P complex might attend the IAC briefing in early April. I referred him to [REDACTED] and pointed out that as many of these individuals as possible would be gotten into the briefing room providing they had proper clearances. [REDACTED] will follow 25X1A9a through.

2. Discussed the date for the IAC briefing and decided that Tuesday, 7 April, would be the best date as Mr. Dulles is expected to be out of town during the last week in March.

4. Attended a meeting in [REDACTED] Office regarding [REDACTED] [REDACTED] has talked to Mr. Dulles, offering the services of his company, and Mr. Dulles has asked that a brief paper be prepared for the PSB meeting on Thursday. The preparation is being handled by [REDACTED] of DD/P. ADD/A later spoke to [REDACTED] by phone and explained to him that we felt that the collection of Public Opinion in the field was considered the collection of raw information and in no way interfered with our concept that State Department is the responsible Agency in supporting the psychological effort with intelligence. Therefore, we would have no objection should it be decided that CIA would directly sponsor [REDACTED] activities.

6. [REDACTED] brought in a draft of the new Regulation under which all professionals entering the Agency will be required to take a course in basic intelligence. Exceptions can be made by the Director of Training on the request of an Assistant Director. Should any disagreement arise, final decision will be made by the appropriate Deputy. I concurred for DD/I.

b. [REDACTED] will prepare a letter to the Commandant for Mr. Dulles' signature giving these names.

c. Carbon copies of these letters, together with the schedule of lectures, will be dispatched to the Director of Training who will take the following steps:

(1) Reproduce and distribute the lecture schedule so that requirements can be placed for copies of the reproduced speeches.

(2) Notify the individuals selected and give them the necessary briefing prior to their attendance as the Director's representatives.
